Radelthon Fest

This year's Radelthon Event will start and finish on Kelley Barracks June 21. This fund-raising event celebrates the start of the German bicycling season. The official program, complete with gymnastic and mountain biking demonstrations, an ADAC bike obstacle course for children and dancing and musical entertainment, will go from noon to 5 p.m. Food and beverages will be available for purchase.

The Radelthon event is an "on your honor" bicycle fund-raising event. You earn money by completing all or part of the route between now and June 21. The Radelthon route is a well-marked, 80-kilometer bicycle route around Stuttgart.

To chart your Radelthon route you can purchase maps (DM 6 donation) of the route from Army Community Service, building 2307 on Patch Barracks; or the 6th ASG Public Affairs Office, building 3307 on Kelley Barracks.

To record your kilometers, come to Kelley Barracks June 21 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. and register at the booth. Bicyclists will earn 20 Pfennigs per kilometer ridden between now and the event.

The Radelthon is sponsored by the AOK Health Insurance Company. The money raised will go toward activities and items for local German and American youth groups. In 1997, more than DM 5,000 was raised for American youth. For more info call 0711-729-2712.
